Mom, here are some ready-to-use templates that you can print for kids to give to your grandmothers and grandparents! A little sharing here! Not many of you know that I grew up with my grandmother, so I know how great it is to be loved by my grandfather. I was loved fondly. I was pampered to pieces. As a child, both my parents continued to study abroad. My mother took a diploma and master's degree in Australia, while my dad also studied in India and the Netherlands. Since they were far away, I spent all my basic days with my grandmother, my nana. Honestly, in the corners of the eyes, a little tears are formed, which now remembers her. I miss her dearly. How I wish I was still here so I could celebrate grandpa's day with her. She miraculously spoiled me as a child as I wish I had a chance to spoil her, too! She died when I was in middle school, just a few years after my parents returned home. = (But I'm really happy to see my kids growing up to be really close with grandparents, just like I did when I was a kid. Growing up with nana, I know how easy it is to please our grandparents. Just a sweet note or a small flower from the garden to delight their hearts! When I am close to you, I feel your love when I am away from you, I miss you so much. You certainly have to be the biggest grandparents around the world. I love you so much!6) Grandparents Poetry for childrenI did not know my grandfather, but I would like to have, however, because of the story, mom told me to love him so much. She said he was a great man who bounced her on the knee, baked her coconut cakes for her birthday, she even had pictures for me to see. My grandmother is very special, too, because when we go to her house, she finds a lot of good things to do, like making crafts and cookies too! He takes me and my sister to the park, where we walk along the walking trail, and if it's really hot, he buys us ice cream for a bucket! He likes to take us to the creek so we can wade through and moisten our feet. I wish you all to know my grandmother, because she is so sweet!– Brentney S. Johnson7) Grandpa & Grandma PoemFew can bring warmth We can find in their embrace, And little more is needed to bring love. Than a smile on his face. They have a stash of valuable stories, But they have time to wipe a tear. Or give us reasons to make us laugh, They grow more valuable over the years. I believe that God sent us Grandparents Like our heritage in advance, to share the moments of our lives, As an additional means of His love.–Anonymous8) Grandparents Love PoemIt seems only yesterday Our life is just beginning. Your love for us has never failed, our hearts are constantly waiting. It's strange to watch the time fly Before our eyes, Which reminds me of the blessing. That we have you in our lives. To still feel a touch that is as delicate as your hand Proximity to our family, which I could never understand. As each of our lives continues to change, the reflections of your love in each of us remain. You have ridiculed the road and led us along the way; The wisdom you have planted, each of us we still hold to this day. You protected us through childhood and saw us today, you taught us from the Lord above, About faith, and how to pray. One day we will all be in heaven dancing on the throne, praising God for giving us a family like we never knew. No matter where our lives may go, we will trust the Lord above and through it all always thank him for the love of our grandparents.– Tina WilliamsMust Check – Latest & Free Grandparents Day Sayings Images9) The poem on grandparents are a blessingWhen God created grandparents the world was truly blessed with all the special joys that make the family happiest. . . For grandparents to know how to do things that warm the heart, Touch our with the love of care from the very beginning . . . They show that they believe in us and everything we dream of. . . And chocolate fudge, with cherries on top. I popcorn and peanuts and pop grape soda. In winter or summer, in the rain or in the sun, grandmothers and grandparents are great fun!! 11) Grandpa & Grandma Poem on Two HeartsAs hearts faithful and the real world would be incomplete without you. You are two of the bravest and kindest people I know. No matter what you do, your love for others will always show. I believe that a good God was different from the rest of you. Haven't you shown me that two are only the best? I think I know the answer to that question. Your love for yourself and others is something I don't have to mention. Happy Grandparents Day to you. !! I really, really love you!12) Grandparent Rap PoetryIt's Grandparents' Day and we're here to say, We love our grandparents in a meaningful way. So sit right and sit down, and we'll put on a show that you can't beat! Some grandparents are skinny. Some eat a lot. Some are funny. Some are not. Some short, some high, some large, some small. It doesn't matter, we love them all!3) A poem for My Grandfather, you are so special to me, you teach me that I am happy and free. I love spending our fun days together, I always find a new adventure. Don't mind answering my questions Why? You lift me up and carry me high. My Grandpa, take the time to teach, let me see things beyond my reach. With you I always feel safe, I will love you forever, more and more. We say goodbye with a hug and a kiss as I make a big, big special wish... My wish for you, Grandpa, please, please do not go. Why? Because I love. I love you, I love you, I love you so...– Unknown Author14) Special poem for grandma Grandma has a special talent- She always knows what to do to make her grandchildren happy and show that she loves them. At family gatherings, She is the first person to look- She can entertain small children for hours, And always ask for more. You can tell when grandma teasing by the flicker that shines in her eyes- She is an expert in problem solving. Because she is loving, patient and wise. Her grandchildren always admire her, Even when they are grown- They always feel proud and happy to claim grandma as their own!- Unknown author
